

GERUNDS VS INFINITIVES AT CEFR A2 LEVEL

Would you like to be a woman? Do you like being a woman?

Can girls learn to speak a language faster than boys?

Can women be good engineers/soldiers?

Can women help to improve the economy of a country?

Can women plan to go to the military in your country?

Can you offer to pay for a woman's drink in your country? What does it mean if she accepts?

Do girls often pretend to laugh at boys' jokes? If so, why do they do that?

Do girls usually finish completing school tests before boys?

Do parents in your country let their teen daughter date a boy? Can boys date girls earlier?

Do parents make their daughters work in the house? What about their sons?

Do women often promise to call you without keeping it? What about men?

Do you enjoy talking to girl-friends? What do you talk about? Do you talk about different things with boy-friends?

Do you hate listening to old ladies?
Why (not)?

Do you love working with women? Is it better to work with women or men?

Do you mind helping with the housework?

Do you spend much time dealing with men or women at work? What do you like or dislike about it?

Do you think that women only want to have jewels?

Do you think women in all countries
can hope to get a job?

Does a man need to have a woman in his lives? And do women need men?

Have you ever forgotten to call your wife/mother/girlfriend on women's day?

Is it true that women go on and on talking? What about boys?

Should women be involved more in politics?

Why do you think women decide not to have children?

Will women ever stop buying shoes?